RELEASE INFO

Get ready to break out your Chuck Taylors and leather jackets! Hailing from Long Island, NY, The John Stamos Project (JSP) bring punk rock back to the basics on their second release "North American All-Stars." Three chords, hooks galore and attitude make this a must have. If you're a fan of the Ramones, Green Day, or Lookout Records circa 1991, then this is the disc for you!

Originally released in 2004, this classic EP finds the JSP at the top of their game. From the opening assault of "Kill 'Em With Kindness" to the closing harmonies on "I'll Never Be Alone," you'll wish all pop-punk could sound this good. The exceptionally catchy "He's Not Right" and "J.J. Is a Drama Queen" have been heard on college stations in the NY/NJ area, with the latter being featured on the nationally distributed "AMP Magazine Vol. 4: Pop-Punk" compilation CD.

The 2006 re-release of the "North American All-Stars" CDEP features all-new artwork and bonus multimedia including the infamous SLACKER TV episode. Catch them on the road and look for a new JSP release later this year!

PRESS NOTES

"...the best pop-punk band you've never heard...our last best hope for fun, peppy, Ramonesy pop-punk is JSP. Find this album and bob around to it." -READMAG

"If listening to suicidal adolescents from Long Island has lost it's appeal, leave your Kleenex behind and stomp around to this brilliant pop-punk band instead...the trio's energetic delivery is as original as it is fulfilling." -PUNK
